A hand-drawn illustration of a forest scene. In the foreground, there are several mushrooms: a large red one with white spots, a smaller red one with white spots, and a tiny red one. To the right, there are large green leaves. In the background, there are more trees and a blue sky with a few clouds. A yellow rectangular box is overlaid on the bottom left, containing the text "KLASA 7a" in bold black letters. The entire illustration is framed by a blue border.
